“ Thank you God for giving my family the priviledge of knowing & loving Allen for the past 34 years. I have always said that if Allen and my Daddy couldn't do it, it couldn't be done. My Daddy loved Allen, and that is an accomplishment to get his approval. My Momma loved him like another son, he was always more to her than a son-in-law. They have 2 great sons together that he was so proud of, and always told me that he would love Melinda until his dying day, and he did. There are memories that no one can take away. We love you Allen and will meet you in Heaven one day....
