“ Our family extends its most heartfelt condolences at this difficult time. We were shocked and saddened at the sudden passing of someone we were proud to call friend. She always had a smile and a hug for us, and she will be greatly missed. Remember that the Lord has promised to never leave or forsake you, so rest in the comfort that only He can provide at this time. Paul and Kelly Holland

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Angie's passing. What a special person she was! Always with a quick smile, she was such a warm, caring person that was passionate about her family and the people close to her. She will be truly missed, but leaves behind such a strong legacy. She will forever be remembered by all the lives she touched!
