“ I haven't seen Aunt Carolyn since I was about 12 years old but no matter what she would always call and send me messages on every holiday and always remembered my birthday.

“ Carolyn was always my sister-in - law and friend. She and I went through some difficult times in ST Louis but we didn't know that. We grew up together with brothers that worked to support us. We had children almost back to back but, that was what we did in those days. We would put Shari in her stroller and walk in ankle deep snow to share a hamburger for lunch. Lots of wonderful memories. Carolyn will always be a memory . Love you GF
