“ Cesar was a very good friend & neighbor to my in laws, Phillip & Karen Olin. He was such a gentlemen to my mother in law after Phillip passed away, he was very kind to Karen, taking her trash can to the curb & always taking it back. Always a cheerful person, Karen will surely miss him.. May God comfort his family & his children .

“ You were my soft place to land. My dear friend who always helped me balance my strength and vulnerability. You constantly reminded me of my worth. The world will not be the same without your kind spirit, generous heart, and undying loyalty. My soul will forever miss you and always look for you. Until later, I’ll love you on earth.
