“ When i am gone,release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be thankful for our beautiful years. I gave to you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love each of you have shown,but now its time i traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me,if grieve you must then let your heart be comforted by trust. It is only for a time that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away,for life goes on and if you need me call and i will come. Though you can't see or touch me,i will be near,and if you listen with your heart,you will hear all my love around you soft and clear,and then when you must come this way alone,i will greet you with a smile and say ""Welcome Home"" May God touch you and hold you in this time of sadness and know there is a better place waiting. God Bless the Family..we will be there for you. Much Love, Vicki Chapman

“ We're so sorry about losing our great friend and neighbor, ""Chuckie"". He was always smiling and very quick witted when teasing with his lovely bride, Connie. We've grown closer over the years--first as neighbors, then friends. The Maley's three sons are truly blessed to have them as parents. He will be missed dearly.
