“ When I first sat down at her kitchen table I had this overwhelming feeling that I had come home. After sleeping on her couch in her adorable country home living room and hearing the cuckoo clock go off in the night, I just had this peace. Jeanne was peace, Jeanne was love, Jeanne strived to live just like Jesus. That first morning of my visit, I awoke to the smell of breakfast cooking in the kitchen at some incredibly early hour of the morning. When she offered me a second Belgium waffle, I immediately agreed to it. She just had this way of taking care of everyone and everything. She made me feel like I was so very special, but she made you feel that way too, and you and you and you. Whenever anyone was in town and they came over for dinner, she created a masterpiece. I remember her adult children would whisper to me, You dont have to finish that whole plate, Mom always gives everyone so much. I remember being in such awe and thinking, this is just how Jeanne views life. She unselfishly gives everyone SO MUCH. She was always taking care of her ferns in her yard and enjoyed talking with her neighbors. If you called to chat with her and ever had something negative to say about a situation, shed listen, but shed always end it by saying, Well all we can do is pray about it. And she was right. Countless prayers have been answered because of her unwavering faith. Jeanne is my hero. She was my person. We could talk for hours, about life, the weather, kids and her favorite-stories of her children when they were little. I am a better person because of Jeanne. With Love, Mary Daughter in Law, Wife of Anthony
