“Charles Waldrop was a good and steady man. Whose life and that of his surviving family made this world a better place. It was an honor for me to be one of his classmates at Lawrence County High School (Class of 1958). Charles' behavior was exemplary as a student and as citizen throughout his life. He was royal and faithful to his trust in all of his endeavors and relationships. It was my privilege to be seated next to him and Millie at the ""Class of '58"" fellowship last December. We are thankful for Charles' life and his Christian witness to the world. To Millie and the family, we extend our heart-felt sympathy as we live in the hope of seeing him again in our Father's House.”
