“ How sad to come across this obituary and learn that Cheryl passed away. You were our favorite neighbors in Aurora. The street hasn't changed a bit since you've left! Since you moved, I don't go to Beachwood as much! We still get our hair cut at the salon that used to be owned by Terri -- all thanks to Cheryl. Here's a hug and a prayer. Lori & Allan

“ Cheryl was my cousin and we spent time visiting growing up through family visits and reunions. She was a very intelligent and a caring person. We did not get to spend much time to visit after we went off to college and moved away other than family reunions but she was in my daily prayers. She fought a gallant battle against this disease and is now at peace in Heaven with our other family members who have gone before. Her struggles are over. She leaves behind many who cared about her and a large void to be filled. The rose she was in this life now blooms in Heaven nourished with God's love. ""The Broken Chain- We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. You did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide and although we cannot see you, you are always by our side. The family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again."" I will always treasure our childhood memories. I pray your memories and God's comfort will be with your family and friends at this time of sorrow.
