Mr. Morse was born to Roy Morse and Harriett Dohner Morse on August 17th, 1946, in Delavan, WI.

Mr. Morse is survived by his wife, Shelia Morse of Decatur, Al, a daughter, Cammie Shepherd (Mark) of St. Charles, MO. and 2 (sons): Jason Morse of Hendersonville, TN, and Jeffery Morse (Nicole) of Beaverdam, VA. 4 brothers, Dennis Morse of Williamsburg, KY, Steve Morse (Loree) of Elkhorn, WI., Jim Morse (Bonnie) of Joplin, MO, and Tom Morse of Belvedere, IL.

8 Grandchildren and 2 Great Grand Children.

Dave went to Big Foot High School in Walworth County, WI and then joined the Army in 1965. In 1967 he began a 23 year career at Sta-Rite in Delavan, WI., Kaufman, TX., and Union City TN. He then transitioned to Copeland in 1992 for 20 years in Hartselle, Al as a manufacturing/industrial engineer. He was a lifelong Green Bay Packers Super Fan.

Dave was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother. He always had time to help a neighbor or stranger in need. He was a hard worker and a warrior who never gave up. He was a man of few words but they held wisdom and value.

He will be remembered as a sweet, kind hearted man by everyone he knew.
He will be fondly remembered and greatly missed.

The memorial service for David J. Morse will be on August 13, 2016 at 2:00pm at First Assembly Church in St. Peters, Mo. 63376. In lieu of flowers, at Dave's request, please consider a donation to Russel Hill Cancer Foundation at Russelhill .org or by donating to your local blood bank.
