“ On behalf of the United States Submarine Veterans (USSVI), we offer our most sincere condolences and sympathy to all of Edgar's family and friends in this time of sorrow and grief. I pray that God will bless you with peace, comfort, and the healing of your broken hearts. We are especially thankful for Edgar's courageous service to our country, during WWII, in the U.S. Submarine Service on the USS Cavalla SS/SSK/AGSS-244, 4th Patrol and the USS Cobbler SS-344. To our "Brother of the Dolphin" we say ... ""Sailor, rest your oar. We have the watch. May you rest in peace and may God bless your loved ones who remain. Thank you for your service to our country."" So, heavenly Father add his name to the roll Of our departed shipmates still on patrol. Let them know that we who survive Will always keep their memories alive. Bless those who serve beneath the deep, Through lonely hours their vigil keep. May peace their mission ever be! Protect each one, we ask of Thee. Bless those at home who wait and pray For their return by night and day. Edgar Leslie Kilborn, QMC(SS), US Navy, Now on Eternal Patrol. Fair Winds and Following Seas Shipmate His record is now posted online in the Eternal Patrol file on the USSVI website. Rev. Ray Fritz, National Chaplain United States Submarine Veterans, USSVI.

“ To the family of Mr. Ed Kilborn, I and my parents (Sidney and Peggy Raper [Macie's sister]) were sad to hear of Mr. Ed's passing. I remember visiting my aunt and uncle and he would sometime come over to talk to them. He was a very nice man and Macie and Happy were so saddened to hear of his passing. He was a good friend to them for many, many years. You have my deepest sympathy, Lori (Raper) Muirhead Flora, Mississippi
