“ Beth was my best friend in 6,7,8,9 grade I spend weekend with her and we go skating or Beth dad want to go to Huntsville watch wrestling match s at the civi center I have to iron her hair to make it straighten her hair if we went to skating rink We stay up late and we sneak out and some boys would come over and we play spend the bottle that how I met my first huband Paul craft and Beth boy friend was Scott Hamilton. We go to the boat harbor and hang out. I thought I was cool we stay on the phone all hour s off the night we had fun she was a sweet soul I move away in 1978. To okc and she move south of Decatur. And never stayed in touch when I move back to Decatur know one knew were the move too I lost my best friend and when I found out she had passed she was with my x Paul craft. Glad she was with some one we both know. And reminisce when we were young and good time my she rest in peace I wish I could have seen her can't fine any pic. But she was alway on my mine and I always say she was my #bff. I love her so I just can't believe I did fine her before she passed. When I talk to people we knew I ask have u seen Beth or do u know were Beth Spain is I talk to Scott Hamilton. He asked the same thing have u seen or talk to Beth we're she at ... Beth love u girlfriend sorry I wasn't there Much love Ann McGregor taylor. I been try to fine her sister joy.

“ Beth you were always a bright spot in a dark room, we always had some of the best times in even the strangest situations. You were my cousin, my friend, and at times my confidant. I will miss you but always remember you with fondness and love. I hope to see you again in the glory that awaits you when my call comes. Rest well my dear cousin. Steven
