“ My sweet Aunt Jerry is with her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I know Clydie B was waiting on her. I have so many memories of her. When i was a little girl, we spent many an Easter Sunday at their house in Montevallo. As i got older she would invite us to her house for lunch. She always had the best food cooked for us. But I think my fondest memory is that she would call me and sing Happy Birthday to me for many years. I love you Aunt Jerry and I will miss you.
