“ The winds have welcomed Irene with their softness The sun has warmed her with his hands She flew so high and so well That God joined her in her laughter, And gently gathered her into His arms, forever. Sail on, Irene. We will see you again one day.

“ To each of you gathered there today I stand in total agreement that Irene lived and left as a faithful child of the King, as her cousin after years of not being able to see each other, I have been privileged to remember her smile, a radiance beyond words, tall and graceful she walked as she departed to join others gone on before! Just know this Elizabeth, though we're not there there are no mistakes in God's world, and He has promised to see each one through! God bless you in the days and weeks to come, rejoice in what you can pray about everything... and I and all who love you are here if you need us! We love you and we send that same word of love to your Uncles Ray and Joseph and all of their loved ones whose hearts may be heavy just now, but look up now and then and know we here in Ga. are with you there! Sincerely, Lenora & family

“ Irene was a very special lady to me and to all her co-workers and friends at Marshall and NASA as a whole. She was always ready to lend a hand to help with anything work related or for one of our special charitable events - such as the Combined Federal Campaign, Relay for Life, Liz Hurley Race, many, many others and fundraisers for Elizabeth for Madison Academy! We have truly lost an earth angel and heaven has gained one. I know she is looking down upon us and smiling. I pray for Elizabeth to find the strength that her mom had and to carry on her wonderful tradition of caring and sharing her life with others. My life has truly been blessed for knowing Irene - she was an inspiration to me and to so many others. She was always there when we needed her. May she rest in peace! I love you Irene. Elizabeth, Please let me know if I can help you in any way. Love Bennie Jacks

“ My prayers and thoughts are with Irene's family, especially Liz. Irene worshipped Liz and had a wonderful relationship with her work family. Everyone was extremely fond of her and she was a true professional. She will be missed by the S&MA team and MSFC. Another angel in heaven to look over us. She is truly home. We will miss you Irene.

“ *Condolences to Irene's entire family. This week, our world became something less while the legion of angels became something more. She was an important part of our family here at MSFC and she will be missed greatly. Some time ago, I came across this poem that I have shared with others at sad times such as this. Certainly made me stop and think. Her Journey's Just Begun Don't think of her as gone away~ her journey's just begun~~ life holds so many facets~ this earth is only one~~ Just think of her as resting~ from the sorrow, pain and tears~~ in a place of warmth and comfort~ where there are no days or years~~ Think how she must be wishing~ that we could know today~~ how nothing but our sadness~ can really pass away~~ And think of her as living~ in the hearts of those she touched~~ for nothing loved is ever lost~ and she was loved so much~~ May Irene's bright and loving spirit be with all of us. “ My utmost sympathies to the Taylor family, and especially to Liz. Mrs. Irene was like a second mother to me, in some ways more than my own mother. Liz was, and still is, like a sibling to me, so I am deeply saddened that I cannot be with her and comfort her right now. I wish things had turned out differently, but God has a plan for all of us, and we just have to go with it. Heaven has most definitely gained an angel.

“ A friend loveth at all times...unconditionally. Truly I have a friend residing in heaven today! I look forward to Irene "showing me around" when I get there. Her unselfish heart and love for the Lord has forever made a lasting image on my heart. Elizabeth, your momma was a special lady that I loved dearly! We all were blessed by her presence. Love and prayers to you sweetheart, Darlene
