“ I’m feel so lucky I had you for a sister and for the close family we have. I remember so fondly the times we had together with you and John, Nancy and Paul and Skip in Florida. Also, the Humbert family get togethers we had there.
Earlier on the visits with Maureen and Margee (and Aunt Peggy) in Merrick. You will be greatly missed, but I find solace knowing you’re in a better place. Say hi to Paul, Mimsy and Paul.

“ Looking back on so many memories from our years as best cousins. This was hard to know of your decline but I truly believe you are free and at peace now and in a better place than where this past few years have taken you and your loved ones. You are remembered with love as I think of your gentle, kind way, your beautiful smile and eyes. Godspeed my cousin...
