

Jason Glenn Womack

July 5, 1971 - February 8, 2023

Jason was born July 5, 1971, in Seattle, Washington to James Glenn Womack and Cheryl Rolstad Solvik. He was preceded in death by his father's James and Norman. He passed away surrounded by his family on Wednesday, February 8, 2023

Jason is survived by his wife Quajirah Middleton, his 3 children Sealth, Dreux and Sweyne, his mother Cheryl (Rolstad) Solvik, and brothers Jack Womack and Rollie Solvik

Jason completed his education at Colorado State University with a bachelor's degree in landscape Design and Construction.

Jason was a kindhearted and generous soul. Always had a smile on his face. Would give you the shirt off his back and his last dollar. Loved his Seattle Seahawks, Seattle Mariners, Washington Huskies. But his deepest love was Horseracing. Loved them Ponies.

A Celebration of Life will be held on February 25, 2023, at his mom's house from 2-4pm. A Remembrance service will start at 3:00pm officiated by John Kitchens.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

FEB 25. 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM (CT)

Mom's House, Cheryl Solvik
4213 Horseshoe Bend Rd.
Decatur, AL 35603

Memorial Service

FEB 25. 3:00 PM (CT)

Mom's House, Cheryl Solvik
4213 Horseshoe Bend Rd.
Decatur, AL 35603