“ There are so many sweet (and funny) memories with sweet Jeanne, who was like a second mom to me growing up. The one that I fondly recall the most often is that she would ask permission to keep me out of school so that we could play. I remember her taking me to the mall on one of our play days and buying a “My Little Pony” for me. I also remember her making Woolie (her beloved poodle) “sing” for me when I asked her to...probably way too often! lol. She and mom would take us kids to pick up Charlie, who was a resident at the Wallace Center. We would take him out on the town for a fun day... always wearing his Cowboy hat. There was always a lot of love and a lot of laughter with Jeanne. She had a heart of gold. I love her so much and she will be greatly missed!!
