Jessica Nicole Hannon Smith, age 41, of Decatur, passed away on Thursday, February 20, 2025 in Meridianville, Alabama. Ms. Smith was born in California on January 9, 1984 to Anne Christine Hannon. She became a salesperson by trade in the clothing industry. She also expressed herself as an artist, who loved drawing and crafts.

Ms. Smith was very out-going and never met a stranger. As a very fun-loving person, who loved to smile and laugh, Jessica was a lot of fun to be around. She was a very caring person and loved animals...especially taking care of dogs. She found joy in spending time at the beach, as well as dancing.

Ms. Smith was a loving daughter, sister and mother. Her greatest joy was her son, Mason. He was her entire world. Her kindness and love will endure in the hearts of all who knew her.

Ms. Smith was preceded in death by her grandparents, Eugene and Aileen Hannon.

Ms. Smith is survived by her son, Mason Smith; mother, Anne Netherton (Tony); brother, Derek Chain (Rachel); nephew, Kaden Chain; grandmother, Mary Ann Netherton; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other family.

“ I’ve known Jessica since we were teenagers. She’s always thought of me as her big sister. She loved my daddy (Keith Brown), & she always considered him her dad as well. I just found out about her death which has me devastated. It’s only been a few months since we last talked. I’ve got no idea what happened which has me even sadder. She was always so sweet, silly, strong willed, & wild spirited even when she was a teenager. She’s with my daddy now, & he’s probably shocked & asking “What on earth are you doing up here sweetheart?”.

I Love & Miss You Baby Sis! 💔😭
