“ I am so sorry for your loss. John and my ex husband Eric Lott used to pic guitar together he taught Eric how to play and would hang out at our house for hours. He was a very smart and intelligent fella and he will truly be missed.

“ We met John when he visited Estonia last summer. We had only known him for a mere two months but the love for music and guitars united us immediately and we took him as a brother. He taught us a lot and was always the heart of the conversation with his spark and broad mind. He was planning to return to Europe soon and we were very happy to get to see him again, but sadly it was not meant to be. The Kidrakuur community from Estonia sends their condolences to his friends and family in the States.

“ I knew John back in mid-1980's through mutual friends. He was a very good humored guy whose love of guitar has been memorable for me ever since. This is sad news and my prayers are for the family and friends.
