

John M Tracy

June 6, 1974 - January 12, 2023

John M. Tracy, 6/6/74 - 1/12/23.

Today we lost my Big Fuzzy husband known to most as “The LJ”. I have never before been so completely loved as I was with Big Fuzzy. He has taken my heart with him on his journey. He was my heart, soul and everything that was good.

LJ was preceded in death by his father, Neal Tracy and brother, Neal Tracy.

LJ is survived by his wife, Nichole Robichaud, mother, Jan Tracy, brother, James Tracy, sisters, Rachael Cannon, Leah Tracy, Karen Thornton, and several nieces, nephews, friends, and co-workers.

With special love and affection to his niece, Daisy Cannon.

A family service will be held at a later date.

On Saturday, January 28, 2023, at 1:00PM at the Brick Deli in Decatur, Alabama, there will be a Celebration of Life and Everything Good of “LJ”. I hope to see everyone there to lift a glass.

In Lieu of Flowers, please make donations to St. Jude’s Children Hospital in LJ's memory. His own personal Star Wars collection will be traveling there as well as he wished.

“ *My thoughts and prayers to Family.
I have worked with LJ at Alphapet for 10 years now. Wow. Still in shock. He was not only one of the best maintenance technicians I have worked with. But a wonderful person.
I want to share to his wife Nicole. LJ loved you to the moon. He wasn't a huge talker. But he spoke of you often and how special you are to him. His love for you was genuine.
LJ will be greatly missed as part of our Alphapet family. Fly High Sweet Soul. And may The Force Be With You as he would say! ❤️*
