“ To all of Jordan's family and friends: No words can ever express how sorry I am for your loss. Jordan was one of the kindest, sweetest, funniest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. The light of Jesus was and always will be truly within him. He is such a blessing and I know he is happily watching over everyone, cancer free. Wishing I could be at the service and not at work; my prayers are with you all today and forever. Allison Young

“ I got to know Jordan at Woodmeade. He went through school with my daughter, Elyse. I spent many hours there helping in the classrooms and often talked to Jordan. He was always sweet and kind and well mannered. He was just one of those kids that got to my heart. In more recent years I would see him at Gloria's or out and about. He was a jewel and I'm so sorry for the family. Will be praying for comfort and peace for all who knew and loved Jordan.

“ Kathy and Grisham Family, I was so saddened to see sweet Jordan in the obits today. I remembered him immediately. I was fortunate enough to spend time with him for his graduation pictures. He was so happy, positive, and uplifting. He was quite an inspiration to me. You don't meet many people like Jordan. He was all about God and doing His work. He had plans to share the Gospel, and do whatever he could to win souls for Jesus. I was so impressed. He will be missed, and never forgotten. I'm so sorry for your loss. He is happy, healed, and walking in Sonshine now. Thinking and praying for your family, Phillis Alldredge

“ My strongest prayers are with the family after this loss. I have not spoke to Jordan in a couple of years but I met him in high school, and I never ever saw him down due to his illness. I truly do think he was the bravest soul and I wish his time here would have been longer. I will never forget him. I have, and I will continue to share his inspiring story of the strongest human being I have ever encountered, with the strongest faith. He was such a sweet guy and I know he is smiling down on all of us now. He is at peace. Enjoy your wings Jordan, you are deeply missed.
