“ Judy was such a special lady - so gracious, loving and giving. She seemed to thrive on hard work and always shared her beautiful smile wherever she went. She definitely left her mark at HSS and will be sorely missed. I was blessed to call her my friend and look forward to seeing her in heaven again one day soon.

“ Never has a more precious soul graced the earth in my lifetime. If you knew Judy, you loved her. The more you knew her, the more you loved her. Our hearts are heavy. We will miss our friend dearly. She's with her Daddy now and Good Lord willing we'll join them one fine day. Until then, thank you Lord for letting us have Judy the short while that we did. ~ Prayers for Tommy and the kids and grandkids.

“ There are few things more rare or beautiful than a genuine friend ... Judy was my genuine friend. She was a lovely example of what Proverbs chapter 31 talks about and what I strive to be. Judy was completely selfless, totally dedicated to Tommy and her family. There was no pretense with Judy as she was always the same, never wavering from her simple, loving demeanor or her loyalty to family and friends. Judy tirelessly cared for her mother, her children and grandchildren, always worried that she hadn't given enough of herself. Her unshakable work ethic came front and center for any and all unexpected projects that came up at HSS - there was no job too great or small that Judy wouldn't tackle. Her generosity shined at the most random times, bringing delectable treats because 'it was Tuesday'. I'll never forget her coming into my office several months ago, placing 2 bags in my hands, hugging my neck and saying "these are for you just because I love you" ... she gifted me with a stunning clear prism cross and a lovely friendship bracelet ... just 'because'. I will always treasure these gifts, but even more priceless to me was Judy's friendship - because it was genuine. There will never be another 'Judy Jones' in my life here on earth, but I will get to hug my friend again! I love you, sweet Judy! I miss you so much!

“ To know Judy is to love Judy. Those of us that were blessed to have her in our lives are truly blessed. A constant smile and the first person to bring a snack, a meal or a treat for no particular reason. Judy shared her love with all of us. I never heard a grumble, a negative word or a complaint come from Judy. If she spoke, it was full of love and admiration. A true inspiration to everyone around her. I will miss her dearly, but I will carry her love and spirit until it's my turn to rest. Today is a great day in Heaven as they rejoice over their new resident. Well done Judy!
