“ Kathryn were friends for a short time in our early teens. We met when I visited the Owen's family who lived across the street.i remember how much I liked her. She was fun and she liked to laugh and make me laugh. We would sit for hours in the swing on the Owens' front porch and never be at a loss for words. Although I haven't seen her since then I have thought of her often and always with a smile. I hope she had a good life
