“ Idk where to start... Kayla was my best friend and the things she did for me is only proof of the generosity and kindness and gentle nature of hers. I remember one morning i had a really horrid hangover and Kayla showed up at the place i was staying and threw a bag on my chest abruptly waking me up.. WHAT THE HELL MAN i yelled at her before i looked at the bag and noticed it was from McDonalds. She looked at me an said NIGGA I GOT U MICKEY DS... There was a sausage biscuit in the bag .. She then proceeded to tell me that someone had ordered it and failed to pick it up, so she snatched it knowing i needed something to eat ... I'll never forget that and many many more memories i had with her.. Not a day passes by that i dont think and miss her.. I loved that girl for her kindness, brutal honesty, opinions and thoughts and my personal favorite quality of her: her ability to freestyle rap to anyone INSTANTLY making them her new best friend. She had such an amazing personality and an uncanny and unbelievably beautiful soul... I love and miss u Kayla..
