

Kenneth Neal Westmoreland

December 10, 1946 - April 27, 2026

Kenneth Neal Westmoreland, age 79, passed away on April 27, 2026. He was born on December 10, 1946.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his mother, Doris Goree; his father, Calvin Westmoreland; and his daughter, Sonia Westmoreland.

He is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Judy Holland Westmoreland; his sister, Glenda McCracken; his daughter, Lesley Smothers; and his son, Ken Westmoreland (Niki). He also leaves behind his cherished grandchildren: Jordan Holmes (Bryan), Sage Smothers, Rylan Smothers, Kenlee Smothers, Cole Westmoreland, Olivia Carr, Cannon Westmoreland, Nash Westmoreland, and Sawyer Westmoreland; and one great-grandchild, Reese Holmes.

Kenneth was a proud Vietnam Veteran and dedicated 46 years of service to 3M, where he built a long and respected career. He had a deep love for sports—especially baseball, softball, and basketball—and was a talented athlete in all areas. Over the years, he shared that passion with others by spending many years coaching and umpiring, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of those he mentored.

Visitation will be held on May 2, 2026, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Shelton Funeral Home in Decatur.

Kenneth will be remembered for his dedication to his family, his service to his country, his love of sports, and his strong work ethic.
