“ It was an honor to be your teacher for the short time I was last year. I loved being able to see your growth as a student and even more as a person this year. So quiet and reserved but always happy, smiling, and with more kindness than I thought possible pouring out of you for everyone you crossed paths with. You are gone far too soon, but Heaven couldn't have gained a sweeter angel than you. Praying for you, and especially your family right now. Rest peacefully Miss Olivia.
