“ Hello, Growing up in as the youngest of 8. I remember that I had to share a bed with my big brother Luis. That's the way things were growing up in El Paso, TX. During our teenage years, my brothers and I worked in the factory where our father worked. I think that is where and when Luis learn his work ethics. One day after high school, Luis got a call from our brother in law, to come and join him out on the East Coast working in the construction trade. That I Think is where my big brother adventures in life began. I remember when I was over the road visiting him where ever he was at at the time. While Luis was living in the Richmond, VA area I stopped to visit for the nigh. In the morning Luis to me to get some coffee. the server knew him and his order, That's when I knew how much Luis was liked and appreciated by the people he would come across, friends, and collages. When I was on the road, I was always happy to visit with my big brother, Luis. Having dinner in Ocala, FL or one time visiting Luis and Eddie for coffee with me at the truck stop in Oklahoma City ,OK. They were surprised to find out I was brewing it in my truck. The next time I Crossed paths with Luis was In Decatur, AL where he took me to his penthouse apartment. Well really it was an apartment on the top floor. the ""3rd Floor"". We had pizza and I meet Dee and Montana.

Luis, I will not be able too see you again, but you will LIVE ON thru Memories, Hope, Love, and Spirit. God be with you.
