“ I didn't know this beautiful young lady, but I'm deeply touched by this tragedy. My you RIP Madison. Jason, and Family, my deepest thoughts and prayers go out to all of you. As a widowed father of 4 kids and 3 being girls i cannot fathom what you are going through. My late wife had mental illnesses and committed suicide almost 9 years ago. I learned there is no right or wrong way to grieve. Time does help heal and God will give you strength. Jason, I wished I knew you personally and could talk. God Bless You and stay strong, because that's what your daughters would want.

“ We just saw you a couple of weeks ago. You were at our home. I remember seeing you walk down our stairs, you waved. And I won't forget you turning around at our door as you were leaving saying ""It was nice to see you"" with that sweet smile. I know my son Jake is having a hard time. My family hurts thinking about how you spent your last moments on Earth, but we praise God for where you are now. Thank you Jesus. I know Madison & her sister are with you.
