“Brother David: I am so sorry about your mom. For you to perform my mom's celebration service on the very day that your mother passed was revelation of a true pastor's heart. You are the best. I know that a mother's passing is one of the most difficult experiences a person has to endure, but we both know where they are now is of great comfort for us. May God grant you the grace you need in the amount you need. Billy Hooker
