“ PS: I forgot to say that even now my favourite shop to go into over here in the UK is Boots the Pharmacist. I spent lots of happy times with you in the drug store and definitely grew up with a love for them! I just love the clean smell of them it reminds me of you. The last time I was in Decatur I popped by Valley Drugs and introduced myself to the people behind the counter, they also all spoke very highly of you and had a photo of you up on there board. The same one you have on this page. Anyway just wanted to let you know that my favourite shop is still a drug store. I have a very well stocked up first aid kit with lotions and potions for all types of stuff. Not to mention how many bottles of perfume I own. I remember one year you so kindly bought me 'Beautiful'. I still have my blankets too ;O) Miss you lots... Lisa

“ My Dearest Margaret... I still can't believe you've gone and that I never got to see you one last time :O(You looked after me so well when I lived with you in Decatur and were always such fun to be around. I have the most amazing memories of all the things we used to get up to. I always speak very highly of you as you looked out for me my whole life from childhood and whenever I returned to see you. When my life was a bit crazy and I needed love as a child you were there. You will never be forgotten and will always be in my heart. I was missing you again so decided to see if there was an Obituary for you as I did not know there was one. I'm pleased I have found this page dedicated to you. Love you lots, your Granddaughter, Lisa xxxxxx
