In Memory of María Elizabeth Reyes Andrade
December 20, 1958 – March 3, 2024

Her husband, Mr. Salvador Melchor Chavarría Ramírez; her children, Salvador De Jesús Chavarría Reyes (Güero), David Alejandro Chavarría Reyes (Ittoo), José Eduardo Chavarría Reyes (Pepé); her sisters, Lidia Macías, Abigail Reyes Andrade and María del Carmen Zapata, and the Palomino Reyes, Reyes Solís, Macías

Reyes,
Reyes Collazo, González Reyes, De Lira Reyes and Zapata Reyes families share in this heartbreaking loss and ask for a prayer for the soul of the deceased. Betty was born María Elizabeth Reyes Andrade in Villa Juárez, Aguascalientes, México on December 20, 1958. She was one of six daughters and two sons in a family whose roots in North America date back to the 19th century. Her father, Mr. José Manuel Reyes Rangel, was a pioneer in veterinary medicine. Her mother, María del Refugio Andrade Ramírez, was a woman with great faith and love for God and played a fundamental role as mother and benefactor of the needy, which helped instill in her daughter Betty the spirit of service and charity. At a young age, Elizabeth, better known as Betty, demonstrated skills in the art of Mexican folklore and because of her great charisma, she earned the affection of everyone who knew her. At the age of twenty-two, she graduated in the field of international trade, and later worked for many years for the government of the state of Aguascalientes. Elizabeth married Salvador Chavarría Ramírez on August 17, 1991. As a result of their fruitful relationship, three sons: Salvador de Jesús, David Alejandro, and José Eduardo, were born. Over the years, Elizabeth and Salvador grew not only as human beings but also as a couple, an example for many of perseverance, faith, wisdom, humility, and above all, respect. The pillars of their marriage consisted of service, faith and charity as demonstrated by her dedication to the Eucharistic Ministry to assist the terminally ill and help them in their agony.

The years made Elizabeth a more beautiful woman. Her spirit grew and matured, her love for life was so great that she illuminated all of her loved ones with her presence.

Her husband and her three children thank God for blessing them with Elizabeth as wife, a mother, and a great example of life. Her legacy will live eternally.

Lord, give her eternal rest. May perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. If by your precious blood, Lord, you have redeemed her, please forgive her, we ask you for your divine mercy.
