“ My cousin, Margie, always seemed so sophisticated and elegant to me. She carried herself proudly, self assured, and confident. I have fond memories of her when I was growing up. She had a great sense of humor and a quick wit. She always had a joke to tell. However, she often laughed so much in telling it she'd blow the punch line. When told of her passing our son, Daniel, fondly remembered a pool party at her house with all the family present. She must have made an impression on him as that party was many years ago. We're sorry we won't be there to say good-bye to Margie. I know she would understand. Our heartfelt love and prayers go out to all of her family. You all are in our thoughts as you go through this difficult time. With loving sympathy, Betty (Hose) and Larry Maynard
