“ Carol Anne, We serve a faithful Lord. He meets us where we are. When sorrow intrudes and our strength is gone, He will gently carry us in our grief. He has promised never to leave us, never to forsake us. God is our Rock. ”“For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:”

“ Seeing Matthew's picture and his infectious smile reminded me of many memories from Thrifhaven school days. Though I haven't seen any of the family since those days, their faithfulness to the Lord was so evident while I was there. Though I don't understand all of God's ways, I know that His purposes are for our good and His glory. From the things I'm reading today in the posts here, Matthew lived for this. Please know that I am praying for you--the ones he loved so fully and much.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Matthew Clemons. He was truly a good and faithful servant of our Lord Christ. He will continue to be a testimony and witness even though he is with the Lord now, as his light shined brightly for Jesus. His plowing will reap a rich harvest! We are keeping all of you in prayer daily. Love in Christ, The Palazzolo's

“ Carol Anne, We have been praying for you, Asa and the families during this difficult time. Matt's love for Christ was very evident when the Coffey team was at Victory Baptist earlier this year. 2 Cor. 12:9 ""And He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me."" Although we do not understand God's perfect plan, we know God makes no mistakes and has granted to us everything we need for life and godliness through knowing Christ and trusting in His all-sufficient promises. We pray that God will be glorified through Matt's home going. Psalm 116:15 ""Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."" We pray you will see His fingerprints daily as you continue to trust and rest in Him. Pastor Kenny and Terri Hamm and Your brothers and sisters in Christ at Victory Baptist, Macon, GA

“ Our heartfelt prayers and sympathy to you Carol, your son, family and friends at this sad time. We are thankful we had the opportunity to meet you, Matthew and the Coffey Ministry team to hear and see his love for the Lord when you spent a week with us at Calvary Baptist Church in Athens, Pa. for our Family VBS this past summer.
