“ It's been a year that a great man has been gone but not forgotten. My dad was the most wonderful man alive as far as I care to make knowledge to. The days have been long and hard with my dad around. I must say I've learnt so much from him. He had so much love and knowledge to share with anyone who wanted to listen or care. He had patience if you had time to listen. I miss hearing him say * Now let me tell you something* or better yet, * let me tell you something even thou you're not going to listen I'm still going to tell you. But most of all I'm proud of you. Not a day goes by with me thinking of you and how much you loved us without a second thought or question. You always held us high and proud. Your love was so big and so much. I adored how much you was a loving dad, a pawpaw, and a husband. You have touched my heart and my soul with how you loved and cared for everyone very much so. You always put everyone before you, family was always first. Thank you again for being my dad, and believing in me and never thinking the worse. You always told me you was proud of me and knew I could do it and more. You might not be here today with me but you are in spirit. You are in my heart and soul and always will be. I miss you every day I always will. You will never been forgotten. Your words and love always stays with me. I love you daddy. Forever and always hugs and kisses I miss you daddy Love D'Anne

“ my sincerest condolences to D'Anne and her family. the world will never know the loss of such a man, nor the pain that his family endure now. i sincerely hope, and pray, that god will make this passing pain short, and all the good memories long and happy. eventually the sun will shine warm, but until then, know that the warmth of my heart, and my thoughts are being sent to you. may Paul Robertson rest in eternal peace, and happiness, knowing his loved ones are still thinking of him.

“ My daddy: I wish to take a moment and express my love and respect for my dad. I know you are gone now, but you will always be in my heart and soul. I'm the person I am due to you. People can have fathers any day of the week, but it's a true man to be called a daddy. I can explain what you meant to me. You gave me light when I felt nothing but dark. You showed me different sides of things, even when I was down you shown me the up side to life. There is more out there, but it was up to me to go for it, and you shown me that with your love and caring ways. You have and were always there for me more than any daddy I know. They broke the mold when they made you. You picked me up and dusted me off, anytime I needed it, no matter what I've done or will do in life. I know you are proud of me and love me for who I am. For a very quiet man you always had strong words and good advice. You might not be here today in person, but your words and strong willed ways will always be with me. Most of all your love and caring ways to me and others. You will always be my daddy! I love you daddy, I always will and I hope they take care of you, like you desire and deserve. You are and always will be my angel, now you shall watch over your family. Watch over us daddy and keep us in line and make sure you talk in our ear from time to time, when we need to find the right road in life.

“ Dearest Chris and Family: I am so saddened about the passing of Paul but at the same time, I am filled with a happiness and contentment because I know he is no longer in pain. I met both of you last year while Paul and I were both going through radiation treatment. I was immediately struck by a peace surrounding him and the smile he always had on his face, no matter how bad the pain...but of course, he had you by his side and one could see the intense love you both had for each other. You were so blessed to have been by his side for so many years and I know he is looking down on you with a smile on his face and saying to you, ""I will be here waiting for you when it is your time"". Bless you and forever know that Paul was one very special man.....and so are you such a special woman.

“ I'm sorry I never got to know Paul in his lifetime but I know through D'Anne and Christine what a great man he was. The world will be lessened by his passing and my thoughts are with his family at this difficult time. I'm cheered by the fact that he is where he will no longer be in pain and he can look down on his family and be proud. I wish him eternal peace and his family the wisdom to remember the happy times and the fortitude to get through the grieving times. With love, David

“ I offer my deepest condolences. My wishes, like so many others, are for happiness and peace to be with you and yours, Mr. Robertson. I never got to know you in person. I was very much looking forward to meeting you, but it was sadly not to be. I heard, however, much about you. I heard how you were a wonderful person and a great father. What your family said about you and how they said it, spoke volumes about your great character and how deeply they loved and respected you. Godspeed, Mr. Robertson. You will be loved and missed.
