“ I had the privilege of taking care of Mrs. Warren, from the very start she stole my heart. Although she didn't feel well we where still able to laugh, smile, and cry. She will forever stay in my heart as a brave and wonderful women though we only knew each other for a short time, she made a beautiful impact in my life. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

“ I have only known Mrs. Jo for a year. Mrs. Jo was sitting on the porch when we looked at buying the house next door and I went to talk to her. We talked and talked that day. After buying the house, we would sit on her porch and talk. Part of the decision to buy our house was because of her. I felt a kindred spirit in her. I felt like I'd known her for years. She was a kind and caring person. I wish I'd had more time to get to know her well and I will miss her greatly.
