“*Dearest Friends, It was a honor to be able to attend Mrs. Harris' service Friday and hear all the wonderful things about her. Fortunately, I was able to experience firsthand what a caring and generous person Sharron Harris was. She will be deeply missed by my family and me, but we will treasure all the years we knew her and all the wonderful times spent with the Harris family. We send you love and peace. “ Dear Charles & family, I can only imagine what you are all going through right now. I know how close of a family you all are, so I know you are blessed to all have each other. The common thing to say at this time is, ""Call me with whatever I can do."" I really, really mean that from the bottom of my heart. I know there is little that I can do that would make a difference, but sometimes, everyone's ""little"" collectively can make things easier. My hopes and prayers for you are to make things easier. I know you have a strong church family and you probably have food stacked to the ceiling, but if not, I can send some over. Just say the word. We think a lot of you, Charles, and thought a lot of Becky. You are ""good people,"" and these days, it is sometimes hard to find genuinely good people. I am keeping you all in my prayers.
