“ To the Family: I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is never an easy matter for any of us to cope with, but we do have the assurance of our Heavenly Father that he will comfort us in all our tribulations. (Psalms 55:22) Death was never a part of the Creator's purpose for mankind, so, he has furnished a guarantee by means of his Son, Christ Jesus, that we will see our loved ones again. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28) I pray that you may draw comfort from these words.

“ Dear Chris and Mrs. Waldrep, I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad, and your husband. I know at this time, you are grieving, but with time you will one day be able to remember the happy times. Rest assured that he is now with our LORD and that is a wonderful thing. One day, you will be able to take your places, as he is holding your spot until you are reunited as a family. May God bless you and your family at this time. Sincerely, Ellen McCaleb (Adam's Mom)

“ My heart is heavy with the loss of Andy, such a wonderful, loving, funny caring man. His life and legacy will forever be remembered and shines through his 4 children and his beautiful grandchildren. I'm not with you today physically but my heart will be with you this day as you gather to remember, laugh, cry and celebrate his life. I love you all.
