“ To all the Prestas - I was thinking of Tina just now, how she taught me to cook Italian foods from scratch, how we sat at her kitchen table waiting for homemade pasta to dry, and how she mothered and supported me during my teens and early 20s. So I googled her to see if she was still at the last address I had, and found this instead. She was a wonderful, warm-hearted woman whose influence on me I still feel. I see from the date of her passing that she went before my dad, Ralph - he died in March 2017. I'm so very sad for your loss but heartened that Tina might have been among those there to greet my father when he crossed over. You are all in my thoughts and prayers now, though I'm confident Tina went straight to Heaven.
