“ I was so saddened to hear of Vickie's passing. For those who didn't have the pleasure of knowing her, she was a ray of sunshine. I had the joy of seeing her when she came into the credit union, often with her beloved dog, Chase. Our conversations always circled back to two of her greatest loves: dogs and her late husband Randall. She spoke of him with such devotion, and while she missed him dearly, it brings me comfort to know they are now reunited. Vickie had an amazingly wonderful life, and she made the lives of those around her brighter. She will be greatly missed.
